"Energy is found in everything" I was told and I truly believe it. There are certain properties that almost uncannily seem to call out to me right before I get contacted to design them.

Like this quant Sliema townhouse which caught my eye a number of times whilst driving past and before I knew it I was given the opportunity to design and fill it with furniture that I love!

This property has so much character. Perched on top of a bridge it has a corner location and is south facing with windows
