lighting and décor to just pop from within, setting the perfect background. You instantly feel like you're in a home store in London or Paris and not Malta. The displays are simply perfection with colour blocking themes throughout.

Scented candles are burning everywhere and cool tunes of Frank Sinatra are being pumped discreetly through out the store. Bowls of fresh white roses adorn every surface and one soon realizes this is not your normal home store.

Speaking with Giudas Fabri, Design Associate who also is part of the purchasing team that travels abroad, he states, "With Kenneth's guidance we have sourced items that we love. These are items that Kenneth would happily showcase in his home. Whilst the style of the show room is not for everyone, we have gone for a look or a lifestyle. Meaning that you could come in and love everything."

Kenneth adds, "We did not want to mass produce the stock and try and find something that

The Designer Boys

Fabulous has long been a word associated with the synonyms tremendous, stupendous, phenomenal, remarkable and exceptional. So when I heard that Kenneth Tanti had deemed his new home store Fabulous, I hoped I was in for something different and something that would live up to the name.

Fabulous was incorporated exactly one year ago with the launch of the dedicated wallpaper & fabric boutique situated in Sliema. One year later and the team have now launched the second larger space on Valley road in Msida and, to be blunt, it is nothing less than Fabulous.

Upon entering I am greeted by the design team being lead by interior designer Kenneth Tanti and two of his design associates, Giudas William Fabri and Christian Fountain. Christian comes from a background of over eight years experience in the design trade amongst other interior retailers.

When walking in to the fairly nondescript building you are transformed into the epitome of style with all the walls, flooring and ceiling painted the darkest grey. Kenneth explains that this was the intention to allow all of the products,
